

Worldly Matters: Issues in Applied and Socially Engaged Philosophy

6th International Graduate Conference of the Department of Philosophy of Central European University

Budapest, April 1-2

Keynote speakers

Emma Bullock

(Central European University, Hungary)

Valid Consent and Moral Transformation

Heather Douglas

(University of Waterloo, Canada)

Trusting Expertise

Graduate presenters

Ada Aust (No current affiliation, Germany)

Disabled Desires: On Moral Challenges of a Practical Entitlement of a Human Right to Sexuality for Persons with Severe Mental Impairments

Thomas Bonnin (University of Exeter, United Kingdom)

Philosophers Engaging with Scientists: Ideals and Practice

Daniel Copesescu (University of Bucharest, Romania)

Mill, Freedom of Speech and Representation of Muhammad

Constantin Mehmel (University of Warwick, United Kingdom)

Gadamer in Dialogue: A Phenomenological Account of Impaired Intersubjectivity in Depression

Pilar Lopez-Cantero (University of Manchester, United Kingdom)

Can't Dope me Love: Why Neuroenhancement Should Not be used to Avoid Divorces

Niclas Rautenberg (University of Hamburg, Germany)

The Kantian Emigrant: Why Kant's Natural Duty Does Not Legitimize a Restricted Right to Emigration

Benedetta Romano (LMU Munich, Germany)

The Epistemic Relevance of Emotions in the Political Context

Bryan Ross (University of Leeds, United Kingdom)

Regan and the Problem of Innocent Attacker: Falling Prey to the Predation Argument

Alison Toop (University of Leeds, United Kingdom)

Is Marriage Compatible with Political Liberalism?

Jennifer Ware (CUNY, United States)

Joking and Believing

Venue: Oktober 6 utca 7, Room 102

For the full programme, visit <http://philosophy.ceu.edu/philgradconf2016>

DEPARTMENT
OF
PHILOSOPHY
CENTRAL EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY