

Curriculum Vitae
Zoltan Miklosi
(Updated: July 2014)

Education

2005: PhD completed at ELTE Institute of Philosophy (Political Philosophy); dissertation title: Rational Second Nature.

2000-2002: doctoral studies at the Department of Philosophy, New School for Social Research (New York).

1997-2000: doctoral studies at ELTE Institute of Philosophy

1990-1996: undergraduate and MA studies in English and History, ELTE.

Current Position: Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Central European University (since January 2009).

Past teaching positions:

Lecturer at Department of Political Science, CEU (2006-2008)

Lecturer at Nationalism Studies Program, CEU (2004-2006)

Lecturer at ELTE Institute of Philosophy (2002-2007)

Lecturer at University of California Education Abroad Program, Budapest (2003-2007)

Fellowships

2000-2001: Fulbright Fellowship, New School for Social Research

2001-2002: Transregional Center for Democratic Studies Fellowship, New York

2002-2003: Reiner Schürmann Memorial Scholarship, New School for Social Research, awarded annually to an outstanding student in the Department of Philosophy

2005-2007: OTKA Post-doctoral Research Fellowship at ELTE Institute of Philosophy

2014-15: L. S. Rockefeller Visiting Fellow at the University Center for Human Values, Princeton University

Recent publications

In English:

1. Co-editing (with Andres Moles) a special issue in Res Publica on „Disagreement and Legitimacy,” 20:1 (2014)
2. „Disagreement and Legitimacy” Res Publica 20:1 (2014), pp. 1-8 (with Andres Moles)
3. „A Puzzle About Free Speech, Legitimacy, and Counter-majoritarian Constraints” Res Publica: A Journal of Legal, Moral and Social Philosophy 20:1 (2014), pp. 27-43;
4. "Against the Principle of All Affected Interests," Social Theory and Practice 38:3 (2012)
5. „Constitution-Making, Competition, and Cooperation,” in Attila Gabor Toth (ed.), Constitution for a Disunited Nation (Budapest, CEU Press: 2012)
6. "How Does the Difference Principle Make a Difference?" Res Publica: A Journal of Legal, Moral and Social Philosophy 16:3 (2010)
7. "Constitution Making and Transitional Politics in Hungary 1989-1996" (co-authored with Andrew Arato) in Laurel E. Miller and Louis Aucoin, ed., Framing the State in Times of Transition: Case Studies in Constitution Making. Washington, D.C., United States Institute for Peace, Washington, D.C. 2010.

8. "Compliance with Just Institutions" Social Theory and Practice 34:2 (2008)
9. "Terrorism, Constitutionalism, and Sovereignty" in Gábor Halmai (ed.), Hungary: Human Rights in the Face of Terrorism (Vanderplas Publishing: 2006, U.S.A.). Reprinted from the Hungarian original published in Fundamentum 2005:3;

Papers in progress:

- „Basic Equality” (on the basis of equal moral status)
- „Collective Responsibility and the Scope of Justice”
- „Autonomy, Coercion and Distributive Justice”
- „Educational Equality: The Insurance Approach”
- „Resource Egalitarianism and Market Inequalities”

In Hungarian (since 2003):

1. „Political Responsibility” (in Hungarian: Politikai felelősség), Magyar Politikatudományi Szemle 2011:4.
2. "Democracy, Political Speech, and Elections" (in Hungarian: Demokrácia, politikai beszéd, választás") 2010 in Mate Daniel Szabo (ed.), A személyiség burkai (Budapest, 2010)
3. "Constitution-Making and Majority" (in Hungarian: "Alkotmány és többség") BUKSZ (Budapest Review of Books) 2010: 2
4. "The Poverty of Political Philosophy?" (in Hungarian: "A politikai filozófia nyomorúsága") BUKSZ 2008:2;
5. "The Boundaries of the Political Community" (in Hungarian: "A politikai közösség határai") in Mária Ludassy (ed.) The Highlights and Shadows of the Enlightenment (A felvilágosodás fényei és árnyai), Budapest, Áron Kiadó, 2007. (Originally published in Fundamentum 2006:2)
6. "Political Obligations: the Problem of Particularity" (in Hungarian: "Politikai kötelezettségek: a partikularitás problémája") Kellék 2006 (27-28);
7. "Moral Arguments in Politics I-II", BUKSZ 2005:3, 2006:1.
8. The Future of the Constitution (in Hungarian: És mi lesz az Alkotmánnyal?), co-edited with László Majtényi (Budapest, 2003)

Conference presentations

- „Resource Egalitarianism and Market Inequalities,” McMaster University, conference honoring Ronald Dworkin, May 30 to June 1, 2014 (accepted);
- „Collective Responsibility and the Scope of Justice” Bordeaux, ECPR General Conference (September 5, 2013)
- „Constitution-Making and Moral Disagreement,” presented at the conference Freedom of Religion and Non-Discrimination (CEU, Budapest, June 7-8, 2013)
- „Ideal theory and interpretive theory” (in Hungarian: Ideális elmélet és interpretív elmélet), Miskolci Egyetem Állam- és Jogelmélet Konferencia, December 17, 2011.
- „Global justice, global state, and global market,” presented at the annual Manchester Political Theory Workshop, University of Manchester, August 31, 2011.
- “Global Democracy or Global Rules?” presented at the Colloquium in Moral Philosophy, University of St. Andrews, October 29-30, 2010;
- “Theoretical Aspects of Campaign Finance” (in Hungarian) Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Institute of Legal Studies (March 2010)
- “Does the Difference Principle Make a Difference?” presented at the international conference Equality of Opportunities, Lisbon, October 29-31, 2009;

Invited talks

„Universal basic income: philosophical aspects” Kaposvar University, March 6-7, 2014
„The basis of equal moral status” Departmental Colloquium, Department of Philosophy, CEU (January 2012)
„The Principle of All Affected Interests’ Departmental Doctoral Seminar, Political Science Department (March 2010)

Courses taught:

Introduction to Contemporary Political Philosophy (core, MA)
Foundations of Political Philosophy (mandatory, MA)
Cosmopolitanism and Global Justice (elective, MA)
Distributive Justice: Theories and Institutions (core, PhD)
Public Policy and Political Theory (elective, PhD)
Political Equality (elective, PhD)

Past courses

Theory of Justice (core, PhD at Political Science)
The Nation State and Political Theory (core, MA at Nationalism Studies)
Politics of Transition and Democratization (undergraduate, UC EAP)
Early Modern Political Philosophy (undergraduate, ELTE Institute of Philosophy)
Contemporary Political Philosophy (undergraduate, ELTE Institute of Philosophy)

Ph.D. Supervision

Completed:

Urska Mavric (2013): „Rethinking the Right to Secession: A Democratic Theory Account”
Marton Rovid (2012): „Cosmopolitanism and Exclusion”

Current:

Attila Mraz: The Relationship Between Justice and Legitimacy
Ioana Petre: Genetic Enhancement and Intergenerational Justice
Jelena Belic: Political Rights Beyond the State
Viktor Ivankov, 1st year, probatoinary
Zlata Bozac, 1st year, probationary

MA Supervision

Over 25 completed M.A. theses since 2004 at the Department of Political Science, the Department of Philosophy, and the Nationalism Studies Program

Services to the department and the university

- track representative for Political Theory track (since 2012)
- member of Doctoral Committee (since 2012)
- member of the departmental committee on learning outcomes (2013)
- member of Library Committee (since 2011)
- member of Hungarian re-accreditation Committee (2011)

Other services to the profession

- Co-director (with Kasper Lippert-Rasmussen) of CEU Summer University on Applied Philosophy, July 7-18, 2014 (faculty include Jeff McMahan, Richard Arneson, Victor Tadros, Christopher Megone)
- Co-director (with Andres Moles and Kasper Lippert-Rasmussen) of CEU Summer University on Justice, July 1-12, 2013 (instructors include Helen Frowe, Ingmar Persson, Zofia Stemplowska, Peter Vallentyne)
- Academic supervisor of the research project „Global Justice” funded by the CEU Research Support Scheme (2012)
- Co-organizer of an international workshop „On the Scope of Distributive Justice”, CEU, Budapest, July 5-7; Keynote speakers: Samuel Scheffler (NYU), Simon Caney (Oxford);
- Co-director (with Andres Moles) of CEU Summer University on Justice: Theory and Applications, July 4-15, 2011 (instructors included Greg Bognar, Matthew Clayton, Janos Kis, Kasper Lippert-Rasmussen, Peter Vallentyne, and Andrew Williams)
- Co-organizer (with Andres Moles and Peter Molnar) of the international conference “Democracy and Legitimacy” in 2010, Budapest, Central European University (keynote speakers: Anthony K. Appiah, Thomas Christiano)
- Refereeing for Res Publica, Social Theory and Practice, Czech Review of Sociology, CEU Political Science Journal, Hungarian Review of Political Science, Hungarian Review of Sociology, Hungarian Review of Philosophy
- Since early 2010, co-organizer (with Andres Moles) of the Reading Group in Legal, Moral and Political Philosophy at CEU, an informal group aiming to bring together interested students and faculty from the Departments of Political Science, Philosophy, Legal Studies, and others in order to discuss current research, works in progress, and recent publications in these fields.
- Co-organizer (with László Majtényi) of the conference “The Future of the Hungarian Constitution” in 2003, Budapest (speakers included Andrew Arato, János Kis, László Sólyom).

Services to the community

- I periodically write opinion pieces on public affairs for general audience magazines and newspapers;
- I am co-founder and co-editor of the site www.szuveren.hu (also available at www.szuveren.blog.hu) that publishes opinions and analyses on Hungarian and international affairs from a liberal perspective (in Hungarian).